

$300,000 DUE FROM GOVERNMENT

"Don't Do It!"

J. B. WHITE

With the view of being helpful, and if possible point out the hazards, and obtain the result of stopping the movement to build a competing system of water utilities in Cameron, this column continues its warnings in the face of the sign up campaign.

Water consumers are being asked to quit the Community Public Service Company . . . an investment that will pay into the city treasury in the next 15 years $25,500 in taxes . . . and go with a proposed publicly owned system.

Normally thinking citizens would not believe a city government would go so far as to jeopardize $150,000 in tax money in an adventure of this competitive nature, knowing in advance that a system so owned could not make enough money to pay off the bonds unless rates were hiked to an unheard of level. Yet, in the face of these certainties, a sign up campaign is in progress. While it is true the people voted to buy or build a system of water utilities, it would be desirable to believe that the people never intended that the city council should proceed to plunge into competition. It is also certain that the city does not have sufficient funds to build a plant adequate for the city, and in the event the council goes through with its desperate gesture, more bonds will be called for.

There are certain facts the people should know. In the first place if we have two water systems, both must make a fair return on the investment. That is the law. Rates then would be doubled because both systems would have to make money. The city must pay $10,000 in principal and $7500 in interest the first year, plus maintenance and operating costs.

Source of supply is important. It is doubtful if water wells in the city could possibly be developed for supply. The Community Public Service Company owns water rights on Little River for one and a half miles above its power house dam.

Putting in a duplicate system of water utilities would almost destroy the pavement in the mercantile area. What would it cost the tax payers to destroy the pavement? It is apparent no one has yet stopped to consider this question.

It is certain that under the system of competitive water utilities that strife would result and generally there would be a state of uncertainty and no end of long time high water rates. The present agreement the city asks consumers to sign, guarantees the rate will be no higher than now being paid. What sort of logic is this? Even though the city could obtain 75 per cent of the water business, it could not possibly hope to pay off its bonds without hiking water rates, taking into consideration the known fact that more money would be required than is now available in the $150,000 in "small change" voted by the people.

A very serious problem to consider is that the present water company has a State Right to take five second feet of water from Little River which quantity at times is greater than the total flow of the river. That the company would feel at liberty to protect its rights under the law, in view of the attempt to confiscate its investment by taxation, would hardly be open to question.

The probable cost of a filtering system might make it difficult for the city to give its patrons water any different from the present supply.

The present water company is earning a low rate of interest on its investment. How then could the people expect to support two systems without increasing water charges? If lower rates and better water cannot issue from the program to own a utility, what sense was there in the beginning to undertake it?

Did the tax payers understand the purpose of the bond issue? Did they vote believing the present system could be purchased, or were they determined to have a duplicate system? Logically it appears that there was considerable belief the present system could be purchased. There is no indication, even now, that it is impossible to buy. Certainly there can be no reasonable excuse to continue this attempt to build a dual system.

It is generally agreed that the city could not build a system adequate for $150,000. It is also agreed that the present system cannot be purchased for this amount. In either case more money will be required. Logic says additional funds should be spent in favor of a monopoly and not on an uncertain competitive struggle.

In case any property owner wants to know what would be necessary in the matter of increased water rates, see 55 S. W. (2) 195201 City of Farwell vs. Texas Louisiana Power Company.

Cameron's bonded debt stands at $178,000. Of this amount $24,000 is for sewer extension bonds that are revenue bearing. If the water system is installed the bonded debt of the city will be almost doubled, although $174,000 in revenue bearing bonds will be outstanding, provided a plant could be built with the present issue. Revenue bearing bonds are issued to be paid out of revenues any given property may bring in. If the property does not bring in a sufficient amount, rates or charges are increased. In case of default tax money can be applied and in case of foreclosure and under certain circumstances, tax money can be taken.

The City was facing another problem. It recently authorized an investment of $15,000 for a swimming pool in Wilson-Ledbetter Park. A considerable portion of this is a federal grant. There is no water in the park. Preliminary investigations show perhaps, springs nearby, will not be sufficient. It was not expected the construction would go forward until the question of water is settled.

CITY PRIMARY HERE TUESDAY FEBRUARY 1

Indications Thursday were that no opposition would be encountered by present city officials in their announced intention to ask re-nomination at the primary to be held on Tuesday, February 1.

Saturday was established as the final date to file for a place on the ballot. A full set of officials are to be elected.

For the fifth consecutive time ownership of public utilities was in the election. It was expected to play an important part in control of the government for another two years.

Southwestern Not Liable Says Jury

Southwestern Life Insurance Co. was held not liable, by a jury in District Court here Thursday, for extra benefits, to Mrs. Vivian Green of San Antonio whose estranged husband was found dead at the steering wheel of his car on June 5, 1934, on the highway near Maysfield.

The jury found that Green died from a heart stroke as he drove along the highway on his way to Cameron and that no accident entered into the case. His car was not wrecked, and was found to have left the roadway, rolling into a shallow ditch. Green was found dead at the wheel and at the time Justice John Thweatt of Maysfield, rendered a verdict of death from heart attack.

Testimony in the trial was introduced to prove that Green had telephoned for a physician to meet him on the road. He lived in Navasota and was traveling for a wholesale medicine house. Dr. W. M. Brook, then practicing in Cameron and now operating a hospital in Lampasas, testified that he had received the call to meet Green (Turn to page 12)

Cross Will Speak Here January 25

Farm legislation now pending in Congress will be discussed by Former Congressman O. H. Cross in an address to be delivered here on Tuesday night, January 25th.

Invitation was extended by the Chamber of Commerce and Mr. Cross has written his acceptance.

The meeting will be of especial interest to cotton farmers. Almost on the threshold of the planting season, farmers are without information on what may be expected of the Congress in controlling production.

Mr. Cross, a supporter of the Roosevelt Administration, is known to favor drastic control of cotton production to remedy price and to dispose of surplus lint. He does not believe that the bills now pending will accomplish any stabilizing influence in the cotton world.

The Chamber of Commerce is making preparation to reserve the district court room for the speaking in order that as many farmers as possible be given seats in the auditorium to hear Mr. Cross.

Business men in Cameron and from over the county are urged to attend, as the question of cotton control is a vital economic factor in central Texas.

In announcing for re-election to this office, he submits his record of service. As assessor and collector of taxes it has been Mr. Stafford's duty to prepare inventory blanks and to shape the tax records of the city. "Hollywood Hotel" Features Galaxy of Stars and Gives You New Hits in Two Day Run Beginning Sunday at Cameron Catchy songs, magnificent settings, two famous band organizations, a swiftly paced inside story of Hollywood life, a star-studded cast headed by Dick Powell and Louella O. Parsons, are some of the elements which make up what is apparently going to be the smash-hit musical of the season—"Hollywood Hotel." It opens Sunday at the Cameron Theatre.

Inclusion in the picture of an entire broadest of the most famous of all air programs—"Hollywood Hotel"—meant adding enormously to the cost of a production already ledgered in astronomical numbers. But the Warner studio took the band off the bank roll and went to town. Result is a million dollar-plus film which gives the audience double value (Turn to page 7)

FARMERS MAY SOON GET U. S. CHECKS

Payments to farmers in Milam county under the government subsidy plan will total approximately $300,000.

Checks are due shortly to be received by farmers who co-operated with the government. In addition to these benefits a parity payment of approximately $7.50 a bale is available to those who agree to abide by the government program for 1938. The amount to be paid from this source was not known but Geo Banzhaf, county agent said it would be a considerable sum.

Under present indications, it was not expected that the government would attempt a compulsory acreage reduction. The plan in 1937 left farmers the option of reducing from 0 to 35 per cent of their cotton acreage. Production figures indicate that the acreage cut was the smallest since the program began.

It was estimated here that if the government seeks to restrict the crop to ten million bales, it will be necessary for cotton farmers over the county to cut their acreage around 40 per cent.

The program for 1938 will be substantially that of 1937 with the acreage cut optional with farmers. Unless the government adopts a program quickly farmers will be forced to proceed on the basis of the program last year. Congress now is apparently planning the 1939 program.

Although many farmers have been benefited by cash subsidies, it was believed generally that this method of relief might be restricted still further. The highest figure attained under the cash payment plan was in 1936 when the total reached around $500,000 in the county.

TYSON ASKS 2ND TERM SECRETARY-TREASURER

Dan Tyson, City Secretary and Treasurer, is a candidate for second elective term in the office, subject to the Democratic nominating primary to be held on Tuesday, February 1, 1938.

The announcement of Mr. Tyson brings to the attention of the voters the record of service made during his brief term in this office. His equipment for the place he holds is urged by many as a reason both logical and compelling that he be returned to the office and his services be made available again to the people of Cameron.

It is important to note that Mr. Tyson, in addition to his multitude of duties, has become under a new state law the Budget Officer for the city. Based upon the budget prepared by Mr. Tyson, the city government proceeds with its business. When this (Turn to page 7)

GENE SMITH CANDIDATE FOR MARSHAL'S OFFICE

Gene Smith, Cameron's celebrated marshal, is a candidate for re-election to another term in the office, subject to the Democratic nominating primary to be held on Tuesday, Feb. 1, 1938.

When Mr. Smith announced that he would seek another term in this office his friends and the people generally over the city were gratified. Accepting the responsibility of the office several years ago Mr. Smith pledged the people protection and a reasonable and sane administration of the laws. He believes that he has (Turn to page 7)

Bright View Taken Of Business Outlook Says Cameron Grocer Back From Meeting

An optimistic view of business for 1938 was presented by Southwestern business men who attended the sixteenth anniversary meeting of Universal Mills of Fort Worth, according to Alvin Matula local Red Chain dealer, who has just returned from the convention in Fort Worth.

More than 200 representative business men from Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Louisiana and Arkansas were addressed by Gaylord J. Stone, president of Universal Mills who spoke on the value of high quality merchandise and the benefits of extensive advertising. Stone expressed a belief that the present so-called business recession would be short-lived and stated depressions need not be of alarming proportions of the public and business men would continue operating on a sane, normal basis. Universal Mills was built from a small beginning to one of the largest in the Southwest during the depression years, Stone said.

Ross M. Sherwood, chief of the division of poultry husbandry, A & M College; Prof. D. H. Reid, of the faculty of the department of poultry husbandry, A & M; A. H. Denke, executive secretary of the Baby Chick Association of Texas and Prof. W. C. Homeyer, formerly of A & M and now of the staff of Universal Mills, addressed the convention on subjects of feeding and feed formulas.

The baby chicks need generous portions of milk and cod liver oil in their early diets, said Homeyer who maintains that, in order to produce consistent layers they must be properly fed from the day they are hatched. This also reduces mortality among small chicks, he stated.

Comedy Team Giving Best Show of Month In "Live, Love and Learn" Opens Today

Teaming Robert Montgomery and Rosalind Russell for the third time, with Robert Benchley featured in one of his funniest characterizations and with Helen Vinson as the "other woman," the new M-G-M romantic comedy, "Live, Love and Learn" comes to the Cameron Theatre Thursday and Friday.

Placed largely in the colorful atmosphere of Greenwich Village's Bohemian art colony, "Live, Love and Learn" develops a sparkling story of the married life of a penniless artist and the girl who forsook wealth and society to marry him.

In abrupt contrast to the grim scenes of "Night Must Fall," their most recent teaming triumph, the settings of "Live, Love and Learn" are faithful reproductions of Greenwich Village.

The role of "Julie," Montgomery's wife, is said to offer Rosalind Russell a telling opportunity to display the talents for which Mero-Goldwyn-Mayer a few weeks ago accorded her stardom.

The distinguished supporting cast of "Live, Love and Learn" is headed by the imitable Benchley and the glamorous Miss Vinson. Other players include Mickey Rooney, Monty Woolley, E. E. Clive, Charles Judels, Maude Eburne, Harlan Briggs, June Clayworth and Al Shean.

Entailing a lavishness seldom before matched in pictures of this type, magnificent salons contrast with shabby artists' quarters in "Live, Love and Learn," providing a perfect background for the comedy and melodrama of the picture.

The new photoplay was directed by George Fitzmaurice who has innumerable picture successes to his credit. The plot, based on an original story by Marion Parsonnet, was suggested by a story by Helen Grace Carlisle.

Jed Prouty Leads Comedy Cast In Months Best Laugh Tuesday & Wednesday

About the best bet of the month for a good laugh is the Jones' family in "Borrowing Trouble," at the Cameron Theatre Tuesday and Wednesday, January 25 and 26.

Dad Jones brings home the toughest kid in town and Bonnie brings home a brand new husband!

America's favorite family, the Joneses, not only borrows trouble, but pays it back with interest in the fun-bubbling, trouble-brimming 20th Century-Fox picture, "Borrowing Trouble."

Jed Prouty, Shirley Gleason, Spring Byington, Russell Deans, Kenneth Howell, George Roberts and Billy Mahan are featured in their familiar roles in the Jones Family circle, hailed by increasing numbers of movie-goers as the nation's Number One family.

All is quiet on the Jones front porch until Bonnie begins preparing for her oft-postponed wedding. Amidst all the attendant fuss and bother Dad comes home from his office in the City Hall to announce that he has become a "Big Brother." When young Roger makes friends with Tommy McQuire, played by Marvin Stephens, Dad is persuaded against his better judgment to adopt him, although Tommy is known as the toughest kid in town.

Tommy lives over a pool room with an older brother who has been frightened into becoming an accomplice of two amateur crooks planning their first "job." When Jones' drug store is robbed, Tommy fears to implicate his brother and refuses to aid the police. As a result suspicion is cast upon Roger and himself.

Determined to make the best of the situation, the family proceeds with plans for Bonnie's wedding. Just as the ceremony is to begin, Tommy's brother, forsaken by his cohorts, phones the information that the bank is being held up at the moment.

All the city officials at the ceremony dash out to their cars to pursue the thieves. Not wishing to have her marriage postponed again, Bonnie pushes the judge and the groom into one of the autos. The wedding is performed at sixty miles an hour, amidst a shower of gangster bullets instead of rice, in the fastest, most hilarious climax the family's ever seen!

Frank R. Strayer directed the film, with Max Golden associate producer. The original story and screen play for "Borrowing Trouble" was written by Robert Chapin and Karen De Wolf.

In Memorium

It was indeed one of God's blessings to mankind for the Divine Creator of Heaven and Earth to have created our late friend and fellow citizen, I. M. Wilkerson, and to have cast him in our midst.

To know Isaac Wilkerson, intimately was to love him.

Ordinarily as the term is expressed, it is a rare thing for men to love one another. This was the relation I felt to my friend, Isaac Wilkerson.

If you have never experienced such, it is a grand feeling for the Saviour to implant this in the soul of one man for another.

I can see the Divine Creator reflected in Isaac's eyes and smile for his fellow creature.

Humility, simplicity, you demonstrated in your every action toward your fellow man—a beautiful heritage to leave in your community.

It was indeed a pleasure to have contacted you for forty years or more.

God created you to bless mankind in the spirit that predominated you in your every day walk of life.

We blot out your faults and remember only your virtues.

A pleasant memory.

J. R. HARRIS,
A Brother-in-Law.

Ad Hall Club Told How to Build Baby Chick Brooder

Building a brooder for baby chicks is a simple task as well as inexpensive, members of the Ad Hall Club were shown by Miss Dorothy Porter, Home Demonstration Agent.

Raising baby chicks without a brooder is difficult. To insure profitable chick raising the brooder is necessary and the small expense incurred under the plan discussed by Miss Porter makes this equipment available to all farms.

The club met in the home of Mrs. Alver Gravender. At the business session Mrs. Hugo Boedeker, newly elected president, presided. Seven members attended. One new member Mrs. Bauch, was reported. Visitors were: Miss Horelica, Mrs. Joe Hample, Mrs. Austin, Mrs. Will Anderle and Miss Theresa Anderle.

Mrs. Anderle and daughter recently moved from the Ad Hall community and returned to meet with the club.

Connie Mae Hickman and Paul Arnold Married in Belton

Prairie and Paul Arnold of Houston Miss Connie Mae Hickman of Jones were married in a quiet ceremony Sunday evening in the city of Belton.

The wedding occurred in the home of Dr. A. C. Gettys, instructor of Bible in Baylor College. He is also pastor of Jones Prairie Baptist church where the bride has worshiped for a number of years. Dr. Gettys in performing the ceremony felt an unusual interest in the wedding because of his acquaintance and friendship for the Hickman family.

The ring ceremony was used by Dr. Gettys. Only members of the immediate family and close friends witnessed the ceremony.

Billie Clark of Cameron, cousin of the groom, played a violin solo: "Love Send a Little Gift of Roses." The bride was beautiful in a blue chiffon velvet gown in rhinestone ornaments. Her corsage was of pink carnations. She wore a blue straw hat with veil and accessories to her costume were navy blue.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Hickman of Jones Prairie and was reared in that community. She was educated at Baylor in Belton and at Southwest State Teachers College in San Marcos. She has been teaching school, having formerly been a member of the Ben Arnold faculty and also taught in the Jones Prairie school. For several years she has been with the Duke & Ayers store in Cameron. Friends here and at Jones Prairie were happy to have occasion to congratulate the couple on their marriage.

The groom, now of Houston where he is engaged in business was for several years a resident of Cameron where he has many friends.

After the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Arnold went to visit with friends in Temple. They will make their home in Houston.

Those who attended the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Hickman of Jones Prairie, parents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hughes, Mrs. L. W. Clark, Miss Curdie Smith-erman, Mrs. Mary Maples, Miss Hilda Burke, Billie Clark, Hubert McClaren and Mrs. Arnold, mother of the groom.

Mrs. Arnold was shown many social courtesies following the announcement of her approaching marriage.

Mrs. J. B. Boatright attended the funeral of her brother Jim McCormick at Taylor last Monday.

Maurine Easley Marries Gordon Dougan of Calvert Jan. 2nd.

A beautiful wedding of charming simplicity was solemnized Sunday, Jan. 2nd, at 6 p. m. at the home of Mrs. S. A. Easley, Cross Roads, when her daughter, Miss Maurine Elsie Easley, became the bride of Mr. Gordon Dougan of Calvert, Rev. W. A. Cravens, pastor of Sneed Memorial Methodist Church, officiated in the wedding ceremony, in the presence of a few close friends and relatives. The twilight hours chosen for the nuptials were doubly impressive with the candle light scene.

The bridal party assembled in the living room before an improvised altar of smilax, ferns and cut flowers. An embankment of these had at either side floor baskets of large white chrysanthemums, and an archway of burning white tapers in silver candelabra outlined the altar. Defining the ends of the altar were graduated silver floor candelabra bearing lighted tapers.

Mrs. Dwight Moody of Cameron, who gave the wedding music, entered bearing a lighted candle and played softly while Miss Mary Denna Murphey lighted the candles at the altar. Miss Valeigh Kestler sang the bridal solo, "At Dawning," with accompaniment by Mrs. Moody.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Joe Anderson of Houston served as her attendant and entered alone, wearing a beautiful model of navy blue sheer with corsage of white chrysanthemums. Mr. Morris Turner of Marlin served the groom as best man.

The bride and groom entered together to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march. The bride wore her traveling suit of Wallis blue wool with grey squirrel collar which extended the length of the swagger styled coat. The blouse of the suit was a pink angel skin lace, and all accessories were of blue. Her corsage was a bouquet fashioned of pale pink orchids showered with lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Moody wore a black velvet dress with corsage of pink carnations while Miss Kestler was gowned in black velvet with shoulder bouquet of white carnations.

A reception was held following the ceremony, and the dining room, where a collation was served, was beautifully adorned with white flowers and greenery. The table was laid with a filet cloth over pink satin, and decorated with smilax. The beautiful wedding cake, embossed with tiny roses and lilies of the valley, was topped with miniature bride and groom, and at each side of the cake, silver candlesticks held white candles. After the bride had cut the first slice, Mrs. D. L. Murphey presided at the cake and Miss Kestler, Miss Murphey and Mrs. Anderson assisted in serving coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. Dougan left immediately afterward for a motor trip with Mexico City and other points in Mexico as their destination. After the wedding trip, they will make their home in Calvert.

The bride, the charming daughter of Mrs. S. A. Easley and the late Mr. Easley was reared at Cross Roads community and is a graduate of Calvert high school and later attended a business college in Waco. Mr. Dougan is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. B. Dougan and is a graduate of Calvert high school. He is connected with the Langford Motor Company of Marlin.

"Hollywood Hotel"

Dick Powell in the best role of his career gives an endearing acting performance—sings tunes that will send millions away whistling 'em.

Opposite him play two of the famous Lane sisters—Lola as a temperamental movie queen who refuses to appear at a premiere for her producer, and Rosemary as a little unknown waitress who is called in to double socially for the star.

A stellar array of laugh-makers are at their rollicking best. Ted Healy as the freelance photographer who becomes Dick Powell's manager and Hugh Herbert as the befuddled father of the movie star give inimitable performances. Alan Mowbray playing the handsome ham leading man does it to any queen's taste. Mabel Todd, Allyn Joslyn and Johnnie Davies all outdo themselves.

Benny Goodman and his famous swing band and Raymond Paige and his orchestra hit the musical high spots.

Movie-goers long familiar with the name of Louella O. Parsons as ace movie commentator of America and radio dialers who have heard her emceeing the "Hollywood Hotel" air show from its inception, now have the opportunity to see her on the screen.

Tyson

budget is prepared, it is submitted to the State Comptroller at Austin for approval. The budget is then returned and presented by Mr. Tyson to the city council for approval. In it are worked out in accurate and economical detail all the expenditures of the city for the year.

Each year Mr. Tyson, prepares and publishes a complete and comprehensive financial statement of the city. This statement has become an annual event in administrative circles in the city and the people look forward to the information contained in it. He has established a record in this duty. The statements are easily understood and back of their preparation is represented a wealth of clerical ability which has been available to the city council and tax payers since Mr. Tyson has been recently installed in this office.

The salary of the office is small, far below what would be expected in any other position with this amount of work. During the past year 12 new funds were added to the books. They came through a number of PWA projects and other details. Mr. Tyson has kept these accounts in order and with the same efficiency but without additional pay. In addition he must keep and report the records on vital statistics for the city and state government.

In asking for another term Mr. Tyson calls your attention to his record. Friends here believe Mr. Tyson is the best qualified man available for this place and they urge his re-election.

Early in life Mr. Tyson laid the foundation for his educational equipment for this kind of service to the people. The people were quick to recognize his ability when two years ago they elected him to this office.

"In every way possible," said Mr. Tyson, "I have sought to justify the confidence of the people by working hard and keeping the records in cor-

of constipation by a GOOD LAXATIVE

Many folks get such refreshing relief by taking Black-Draught for constipation that they prefer it to other laxatives and urge their friends to try it. rect balance and account. I appreciate the kindness of the voters and will be deeply grateful for their support for a second term in this office."

fulfilled his promises in every way and in asking for another term submits his record.

His administration as city marshal has been one of activity. He has gone beyond the call of duty to serve the people, often times working unreasonably long hours without rest or added cost to the city. He has personally directed his deputies and at all times is in close contact with the police who serve under him that he may obtain for the people a maximum of protection and vigilance.

One of the outstanding traits of Smith, his friends point out, is that he is equipped for the place. Long years of experience as an officer and knowledge of men makes his equipment complete for the place. He grew up under pioneer circumstances, a native of old Gonzales. The family moved to Lockhart when he was a boy. Smith rode the ranges as a lad and saw the finish of Texas' great cattle kingdom. It was from the hills of Lockhart that the first trail herd went up to Abilene.

Mr. Smith has been a resident in Cameron too long to need an introduction. Crime under his administration has been reduced to a minimum. Except for occasional small burglaries, thieves have been kept out of the city. He has co-operated with the city council and all its members and feels that he has given the best possible service.

He pledges the people that if re-elected he will continue to give the best police service and will greatly appreciate the vote and support of all the people.

Stafford

he has established for himself and for the people a fine record on which he now asks for re-election.

Born and reared in Cameron he feels that he understands all the problems of the city and in handling the affairs of his office he is both competent and sympathetic toward every problem confronted in dealing with the thousands of citizens who come to his office during the year to transact their business.

The announcement that he would seek re-election will be received with general approval by the citizens who have manifested their confidence in him and have found his service justifies their expression of belief in his ability, efficiency and integrity.

Mr. Stafford plans to see and talk with as many of the voters as possible, keeping in mind his duties at the office. He asks his friends and the people at large to lend their support and assures each one that he will continue to give them service with one hundred per cent efficiency. He is deeply grateful for the privilege of serving and will greatly appreciate your vote and support.

University Gets Papers of Late T. S. Henderson

Private papers and correspondence of the late T. S. Henderson, comprising some 20,000 documents, have been given the University of Texas it was announced Tuesday.

The papers will be merged with the documents left by the late Governor James Stephen Hogg, it was announced.

Mr. Henderson served in the legislature while Governor Hogg was the chief executive. They were warm friends and often exchanged letters and counseled over the problems of Texas.

Mr. Henderson was a member of the board of regents of the University of Texas from 1895 to 1911. He was chairman of the board from 1903 to 1911.

In the now historic political campaign between George Clark and Governor Hogg for the governorship of Texas, Mr. Henderson introduced Mr. Hogg when he met Clark in a joint debate in Cameron. The speaking was held in the oak grove of what is now a part of the old city park.

WALLACE BEERY IN OLD WEST FILM

Heralded as an impressive epic of the West, "The Bad Man of Brimstone," starring Wallace Beery, will open Jan. 27, at the Cameron Theatre. Portraying in graphic detail the manner in which law and order came to the lawless town of Brimstone, the new picture production offers Beery a picturesque characterization.

Directed by veteran J. Walter Ruben, the picture brings to prominence Dennis O'Keefe, sparkling new cinematic find, in the role of an Eastern prizefight champion who swings into cleanup action on Beery's gang controlled town, spurred on by bewitching Virginia Bruce, daughter of Lewis Stone, Brimstone's justice of the Peace.

A large assisting cast includes Joseph Calleia, Guy Kibbe, Bruce Cabot, Cliff Edwards and hundreds of character actors.

Filmed on an epic scale against the background of the West's wide National Forest country, "The Bad Man of Brimstone" and its hard-riding, hard-shooting crew of top-notch players offers comedy, romance and gripping drama.

CAMERON SUNDAY

Preview Film Here Saturday Brings A New Star

"Love is on the Air," a Warner Bros picture which combines mystery, comedy and thrilling drama, and uses a radio commentator as its leading character, is the Preview feature at the Cameron Saturday night.

It brings to the screen a brand new leading man—a big, good-looking athletic lad named Ronald Reagan, who until recently was a radio sports commentator for a Des Moines, Iowa, newspaper. They think highly of Reagan at Warner's and predict he is going places in pictures. June Travis is his leading woman in this one.

Ronald gets away to a very nice start in his new profession, for what he plays in "Love is on the Air" is exactly what he played before he got into show business—a radio broadcaster. It certainly comes easy and natural to him.

In "Love is on the Air" Reagan takes a crack, over the air-waves, at the crooked politicians of the town. One of them is sponsor for a profitable program and threatens to take it away. But by some highclass amateur detective work the commentator is able to round up a gang of crooks, including the politician mentioned, and so he keeps his job and wins his girl and everything is lovely.

Seeing
Is the Biggest thing in Life

From childhood onward, seeing is the biggest thing in life. Through our eyes we gain 87% of all our knowledge. Mother, flowers, animals, books, sports... all become familiar to us because we see them.

Seeing is so natural that we give it little thought. When we study about the human body in school, we learn that 80% of our energy is used in seeing! It is easy to understand, then, that any strain on our eyes causes us to get tired more quickly.

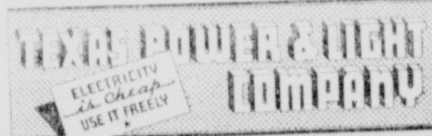

Since we see with our eyes by the aid of light, light is also a big thing in our lives. The better light we have the more easily we see with our eyes.

Guard your eyesight with the right kind of light... at all times. Your eyes need different amounts of light for reading, sewing, studying, playing, visiting. Healthy eyes can do lots of work by the right kind of light... and stay healthy and unstrained.

With morning came the repair crews

A winter rain, falling slowly from leaden December skies, froze to telephone poles and lines. Hard on its heels came the wind. Ice laden wires snapped and poles splintered before the blast.

Night found scores of towns throughout the storm region handicapped by crippled telephone service.

But...with the morning came the repair crews. Hastily gathered from regions untouched by storm, by a management long familiar with such emergencies, they poured into the stricken area with trucks, tools and materials. Day and night they rushed the work of reconstruction.

One advantage to you of the Bell System's far flung organization is this: When disaster flattens the telephone system that serves you, men and money and materials are instantly available for the prompt repair of the damage. Southwestern Bell Telephone Company.

That famous picture "West of Shanghaia" has been booked for patrons of the Cameron Theatre Saturday, it was announced by Stanley Swift. The picture is on the screen here Saturday.

It is an absorbing story of oriental drama, packed with tense excitement, a typical Boris Karloff picture. The story:

Jim Hallet (Gordon Oliver,) has discovered an oil field in North China. He has borrowed $50,000 from Myron Galt (Douglas Wood.) The note is overdue and Galt is planning to foreclose. Another financier, Gordon Creed (Ricardo Cortez,) wants the field. Galt, Creed and Galt's daughter, Lola (Sheila Bromley) take the Suipan train en route to the oil field. On the train is General Chou FuShan (Valdimir Sokoloff.) Shan is murdered by emissaries of General Wu Yea Fang (Boris Karloff,) the "White Tiger" who controls most of North China.

Galt, Creed and Lola arrive at Sha Ho Shen, which is near the oil field, to find that General Fang is in possession of the town. There they meet Hallet and Jane Creed (Beverly Roberts,) who is working with the missionaries. Jane is Creed's estranged wife and she and Hallet are in love with each other and are anxious to marry.

Fang takes them captive. Hallet has once saved his life, so Fang sets out to return the favor. Fang gets the note from Galt and tears it up. Then he bargains with Galt and Creed for the oil field. During the bargaining which is enlivened by threats of death from his gunman, Mr. Cheng (Richard Loo,) Fang takes $50,000 in cash from Galt.

Galt and Creed decide to double-cross Fang. They make a deal with Hua Mei (Mia Ichioaka) whereby they are to be released and Hallet is to be shot. Fang comes to Hallet's rescue and shoots Hua Mei. Meanwhile Hallet's servant has escaped and gone for help.

General Ma (Tetsu Komi) and his troops besiege the town. Fang knows he is whipped. As his last gesture he saves Hallet's life when Hallet is threatened with death by Creed. Fang shoots Creed and so Jane is at last free to marry Hallet. The picture ends as Fang faces General Ma's firing squad.

A MESSAGE TO THE PUBLIC

In order to acquaint the public with the quality of our bottled products, we will serve FREE for an indefinite period, pure water in limited quantities to the general public.

Water used in the manufacture of Coca Cola must be more nearly pure than water served the general public because of the effects of slight amounts of alkalinity on the flavor of the Coca Cola.

No water supplied by any city or water company to the citizens of any Texas community is quite up to the required standard for use in bottled Coca Cola.

We use International Filter Company equipment, and after the water is processed, it passes through a sand filter, then through an Activated Carbon filter, which is 60 times more effective than charcoal for purifying purposes, and then through an additional blotter type filter to remove any trace of sediment.

FRANK M. McCALL IS BURIED AT BIG ELM

F. M. McCall, 88, a pioneer farmer of Milam County, died in Waco, Wednesday January 12th, 1938, at 9:30 a. m., having been ill for some six weeks.

To this union were born ten children, nine boys and one girl.

Mr. McCall was a member of the Baptist church, his membership being at Walkers Creek, where the family resided at the time of the and left his office in Cameron and drove out on the Maysfield highway where he found Green, dead was shown in the trial on testimony of Dr. Greenwood, physician for Green's family in Navasota, that deceased had high blood pressure and hardened arteries.

Following the death of Green the Southwestern Life Insurance Co., tendered the beneficiary, Mrs. Vivian Green, payment of $2000 the full face of the policy. She declined to accept the money and entered suit, claiming extra benefits when she alleged her husband had met an accidental death. The insurance company then paid the amount of the policy into the court. It was shown by the records that Green had borrowed $470 on the policy and that $1530 was paid into the court in full settlement.

Mrs. Green entered suit in August 1934 and won a verdict from the jury, the award being $4000 the full benefits under accident clauses. The case was appealed, was reversed and remanded for new trial. Roy Baskin of Cameron and Attorney Span of Navasota, represented Mrs. Green.

The trial which resulted in a verdict for Southwestern Life Insurance Company began on Monday morning. The case reached the jury on Wednesday afternoon. After deliberating until the following afternoon the jury held against the claims of Mrs. Green.

James P. Swift, attorney of Dallas, represented the life insurance company. John Willis of the claim department of Southwestern Life, was also assisting in the trial.

It was pointed out by a representative of the Company that the practice of Southwestern Life Insurance Company is to pay claims on the basis of their merit and never try to find an excuse not to pay a claim, as evidenced by the fact that this is the first and only law suit the company has ever had in this section of Texas, despite the fact they have been operating for 35 years.

Changes Sought in By Laws Chamber Of Commerce

Change in the by laws of the Chamber of Commerce are sought to expedite the election of officers and directors.

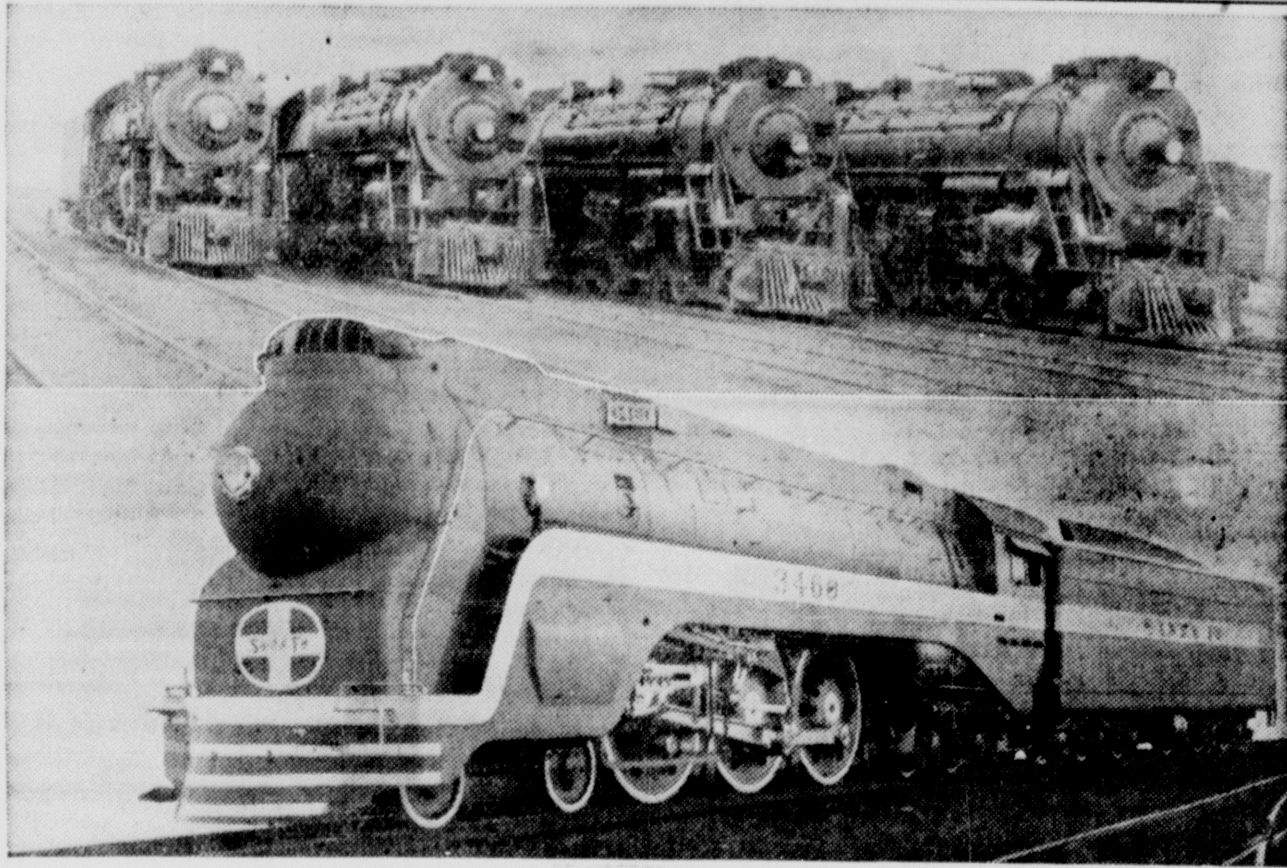

On Tuesday night, January 25th, the directors will consider a change which will permit election of directors and new officers in time to announce them at the annual banquet on March 8th.

If the change is made it will enable the incoming president to name committees to start off the new year.

The meeting January 25th will be held at 7 p. m. to get the business session out of the way for an address by former congressman O. H. Cross, who will discuss farm legislation.

It is suggested by a noted educator that inasmuch as it is impossible for anyone to be informed about everything, we should deliberately choose the subjects concerning which we are willing to remain in ignorance. For most of us these would make a lengthy list.

Graves Re-Named Secretary of Farm Loan Association

More than twenty-five members of the Cameron National Farm Loan Association and their friends heard Secretary-Treasurer P. S. Graves and the Board of Directors of the association report on the association's progress during the past year at a meeting held at Cameron, Texas, on January 11, 1938. Reports showed that this co-operative lending institution has made available to the land owners in this community loans for more than $1,131,400 since its organization in 1917. Other reports showed that the Cameron National Farm Loan Association had on January 1, 1938, 183 Federal Land Bank loans outstanding in the amount of $778,115 and Land Bank Commissioner loans amounting to $230,500.

Mr. Graves read a communication from A. C. Williams, President of the Federal Land Bank and General Agent of the Farm Credit Administration of Houston, which outlined the work done by the Federal Land Bank in 1937, and discussed briefly the set up of National Farm Loan Associations and the essential factors to be considered in making farm mortgage loans. In serving Texas agriculture during the past twelve months, this institution made 1513 Federal Land Bank loans totaling $5,375,500 and 2234 Land Bank Commissioner loans amounting to $3,540,100—a total of $8,915,600 in land mortgage loans to Texas farmers and ranchers. At the close of the year there were 69723 Land Bank loans totaling $211,102,132.27 and 31479 Commissioner loans in the amount of $53,856,011.34 outstanding.

Mr. Williams pointed out that both the Land Bank and the Commissioner are interested in making new loans on a sound basis to enable worthy farmers to purchase farms. These loans are being made at the lowest interest rate in Lank Bank history, and special consideration is given to qualified farmers who wish to buy farms of their own.

Speakers at the meeting included Mr. R. L. Batte and Mr. J. D. Baskin whose remarks were very much appreciated.

Mr. Graves reported that J. C. Freeman, Maysfield, Bartle Crenan Burlington, C. R. Law, Cameron, J. B. Henderson, Cameron and Roy Baskin, Cameron, were elected directors of the association and they in turn have elected Roy Baskin president of the association, J. C. Freeman vice president, and that P. S. Graves of Cameron was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

It is said that there are now approximately two million laws, national, state and local, now in effect in the United States. The Israelites under Moses got along with only ten, some of which are not observed to any great extent at the present time.

Universal Life and Accident Insurance Co. Holds Meeting

The Waco District and the Hearne District of the Universal Life and Accident Insurance Co. home office Dallas, Texas, held a joint business meeting, also banquet for employees, at Hearne Thursday, January 6th. The business meeting was held in Chamber of Commerce rooms, while the banquet was served in reserved dining room of City Cafe. This is the first meeting and reception of this kind to be held in this city since District Manager E. E. Slagle has been in charge of this territory, and it was well attended by officials and local men. The following officials and local agents were in attendance: Mr. Whittaker Brodnax, President, and S. A. Mitchell, Division manager, of Dallas; District Manager T. C. Evans and local agent, Morris and Killbrew from Waco; Local Agent May from Temple; Local Agents Chitwood from Corsicana, Vickers from Mexia; District Manager E. E. Slagle and Local Agent Henry Rohde, of Hearne; Local Agent L. J. Hoffman, of Bryan; Local Agents C. R. Daniels, Cameron, and Albert Pietsch, of Calvert.

Mrs. E. E. Slagle of Hearne, Mrs. C. R. Daniels of Cameron, and Mrs. Vickers of Mexia were guests of President Brodnax at the meeting and the banquet.

Another meeting will be held in Hearne some time during March, it is announced.

With the increase in business, it is planned by the company to establish a division office with division manager, at Hearne, in the near future, which office will have observation over Falls, Milam, Robertson, Bell, Williamson, Brazos, Burleson, Grimes and Washington counties. This will mean bringing four more families to Hearne to reside due to Hearne being in the center of this territory and districts.

The company has made exceedingly good progress the past year, officials said, having increased assets over $112,000.00; also increased life insurance over $2,000,000 in Texas alone.
